LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: United States v. Jonathan Huertas, 14 Cr. 55 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

In advance of the status conference scheduled for July 15, 2024 in this matter, the Government respectfully writes to provide the Court with a status report regarding the defendant's state case arising out of the same facts as the majority of the defendant's pending supervised release specifications (the "State Case").

Based on the Government's discussions with the Office of the Special Narcotics Prosecutor for the City of New York ("SNP"), the Government understands that the SNP has made a plea offer to resolve the State Case and that the judge presiding over the State Case has allowed the defendant until July 23, 2024 to consider the plea offer, at which point the defendant will either plead guilty, or the judge presiding over the State Case will set a motion schedule and trial date, likely in early 2025.

Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the July 15, 2024 conference in the federal supervised-release proceeding to a date at the beginning of August 2024, with the parties to submit a further status update by July 30, 2024, including the parties' positions as to any release of the defendant to state custody.¹ Counsel for the defendant and the U.S. Probation Office both consent to the proposed adjournment and the proposal outlined by the Government.

¹ The defendant was arrested on or about September 19, 2023, and has remained in federal custody from that date to the present. As set forth in the parties' joint status letter, dated December 4, 2023, the defendant is charged with violating the conditions of his supervised release in nine Grade A violations, which each carry an advisory Guidelines range of 12 to 18 months' imprisonment; two Grade B violations, which each carry an advisory Guidelines range of 4 to 10 months' imprisonment; and one Grade C violation, which carries an advisory Guidelines range of 3 to 9 months' imprisonment.

The parties thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
